

October 29, 2016 For The Twenty Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Today's Hymns

Processional Hymn	Hymnal 448 (v.1-3)
Sequence Hymn	Worship Booklet p. 3
Offertory Hymn	Hymnal 510 (v.1-2)

The Collect

Almighty and merciful God, it is only by your gift that your faithful people offer you true and laudable service: Grant that we may run without stumbling to obtain your heavenly promises; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

The Old Testament

Isaiah 1:10-18

Hear the word of the Lord, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah! What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the Lord; I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts; I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats. When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand? Trample my courts no more; bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation—I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity. Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates; they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them. When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood. Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow. Come now, let us argue it out, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.

The Psalm

Psalm 32:1-8

- 1 Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven, *
and whose sin is put away!
- 2 Happy are they to whom the LORD imputes no guilt, *
and in whose spirit there is no guile!
- 3 While I held my tongue, my bones withered away, *
because of my groaning all day long.
- 4 For your hand was heavy upon me day and night; *
my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer.
- 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you, *
and did not conceal my guilt.
- 6 I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD." *
Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin.
- 7 Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trouble; *
when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach them.
- 8 You are my hiding-place; you preserve me from trouble; *
you surround me with shouts of deliverance.

2 Thessalonians 1:1-4,11-12

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of everyone of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring. To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 19:1-10

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

Announcements

Service day/time change: The Bishop's Committee voted to move the worship day back to Sunday morning effective on the first Sunday in December which is the 4th. This was due to feedback from the congregation. The Bishop gave his approval for the change. The time will either be 9am or 9:30am and will be based on feedback and survey results.

Rentals: The back house will be occupied officially on December 1 but the Hee's have been given permission to start putting things in since it's unoccupied. We are still working on a lease agreement to rent out the preschool kitchen to a chef for his startup
catering/food truck business.

November 2: Evensong All Souls Day Service invite at St. Mary's Church on Wednesday, Nov 2 from 7pm - 7:30pm.
Soldier chapel with reception to follow.
Prayers for departed loved ones will be offered for those who submit names to Charlene at St. Mary's.

November 20: Service invite at Epiphany Church on Sunday, Nov 20 at 8:30am. The people of Epiphany also invite us to worship with them again at the Feast of the Holy Sovereigns. They will be commemorating King Kamehameha IV and Queen Emma.
Mary Sueoka will be offering a Reflection on the Word, and hula will also be offered in Response to the Word. There will be a potluck brunch following. In addition to our usual worship on Saturday evening, they hope you will add this special celebration to your calendars in November.

January 14: Bishop's announcement - Ordination of Annalise Marie Castro
