The Collect

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Old Testament

Acts 9:1-6, (7-20)

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." [The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, Lord." The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name." But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."]

The Psalm

Psalm 30

- 1 I will exalt you, O LORD,
because you have lifted me up *
and have not let my enemies triumph
over me .
- 2 O LORD my God, I cried out to you, *
and you restored me to health .
- 3 You brought me up, O LORD, from the dead; *
you restored my life as I was going
down to the grave .
- 4 Sing to the LORD, you servants of his; *
give thanks for the remembrance of his holiness .
- 5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling of
an eye, *
his favor for a lifetime .
- 6 Weeping may spend the night, *
but joy comes in the morning .
- 7 While I felt secure, I said,
"I shall never be disturbed. *
You, LORD, with your favor, made me
as strong as the mountains."
- 8 Then you hid your face, *
and I was filled with fear .
- 9 I cried to you, O LORD; *
I pleaded with the Lord, saying,
- 10 "What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit? *
will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?
- 11 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon
me; *
O LORD, be my helper."
- 12 You have turned my wailing into
dancing; *
you have put off my sack-cloth and
clothed me with joy .

- 13 Therefore my heart sings to you without
ceasing; *
O LORD my God, I will give you
thanks for ever .

The Epistle

Revelation 5:11-14

I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice,

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered

to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might

and honor and glory and blessing!"

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing,

"To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb

be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!"

And the four living creatures said, "Amen!"
And the elders fell down and worshiped.

John 21:1-19

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

Announcements

CANCELLED: Spring Rummage Sale: Instead of postponing the spring rummage sale, the leadership decided to cancel this event and just go with the annual scheduled one in the Fall (usually in October). Since we don't have storage space, we will be donating current rummage items to another charity. In place of the spring rummage, we will schedule another CPK fundraiser in the summer!

Parish Hall Repairs – The repairs and updates to the parish hall have already begun. If you still have items in the parish hall that belong to you, please remove them. We lack storage space so things need to be taken home, donated (to a charity or school), or thrown away. We have gone back to using the pavilion for refreshments and social gatherings.

Choral Evensong at The Cathedral Honors Prince Albert: Today, May 5th at 5:30 PM, honoring Prince Albert, the only son of King Kamehameha IV and Queen Emma, who died at the age of 4. Evensong will feature the Cathedral Choir and Orvis Choral Scholars.

Tune In To Watch Out Of State Being Broadcast On May 6: OUT OF STATE is a documentary about two native Hawaiians who are shipped to a prison in Arizona where others from Hawai'i are also incarcerated. Follow their journey as they discover their indigenous traditions from a fellow inmate and question if they can ever really go home again. The film will be airing across the country on PBS' Independent Lens on May 6th at 4:00 PM HST. The highly acclaimed film has won numerous awards and continues to receive wide acclaim.

Bishop's Committee Meeting: May 19th after refreshments. If you would like any church related items to be discussed, please let one of the Bishop's Committee members know or you are also welcome to join us at the meeting!

Rest in Peace –

Jennie Lum's funeral is scheduled for Saturday, June 29 at Diamond Head Mortuary. Viewing from 10 am, service at 11:45 am with lunch to follow, burial at 2 pm. Please keep the family in your prayers.

Palaka Stoles & Scarves Available For Purchase: The Good Shepherd Church Women in Ministry still have a few palaka stoles and scarves for sale. The beautifully sewn items are $45 for the stoles and $35 for the scarves. Please e-mail Louise Aloy if you are interested in purchasing either of these items. They will also take orders if these sell out.

Planned Giving Workshop: Saturday, June 8th from 9:00 AM-3:00 PM at the Cathedral of St. Andrew, Von Holt Room. Whether your church has an existing Planned Giving Ministry /Endowment or none at all, all parishes will benefit from this workshop, that reviews best practices and empowers leadership to be able to take the best, next steps for their congregation! The workshop is being led by James Murphy, the Managing Program Director of Financial Resources for the Episcopal Church Foundation (ECF), who oversees ECF's Financial Resource development programs and resources, including planned giving, donor solutions and endowment management. He leads workshops and works with congregations, dioceses, and other Episcopal organizations to enhance and develop their programs and resources. For more information and to register, visit the Diocese webpage.

Tri-church Bible Study: Every Thursday at St. Luke's Episcopal Church—10:00 am to 11:30 am (Led by Michael Kim of St. Luke's.)
