The Last Sunday after the Epiphany

WELCOME BACK!

REMINDERS:

- There is still no singing but (quiet) responses are now allowed.
- Please wear your masks.
- Every other pew is being used to maintain social distancing. Only families of the same household can sit close to each other. Only two non-family members can sit on each pew (one on each end)
- No procession or recession by priest.
- No service booklet except for the priest, acolyte and/or appointed response person.
- The Offering collection plate will not be passed around during the service. It is in the back of church. Please try to place your offering there before the service or at the end if you missed it.
- Communion will be bread only. It will be given closer to the pews. Single file down the aisle and exit to the left or right to walk back to your seat. **All are welcome to go up for communion or a blessing. - No coffee hour after the service.
- If you are feeling sick or feverish, please stay home.

Update on Jan Motoshige: Mastectomy Postponed

Journal Entry by Joni Kohama on February 7, 2021

Just a quick update to let everyone know that Mom's mastectomy is postponed and will not take place tomorrow.

On Saturday she forgot to call for help to go to the bathroom, fell, and hit her head. They have an alarm on her bed but she moves fast. Immediately after she fell, the HPM staff called to let me know that Mom had fallen, had a large bump on her head and did not break any bones. An hour later Mom told the HPM staff she had a headache and felt nauseated, so they immediately took her to the ER at Kuakini (the building adjacent to HPM).

The ER did a CT scan of her head and checked her for any breaks or fractures. The good news is that there was no bleeding or fractures, but they did say that she was displaying signs of a concussion.

Mom returned to her room at HPM after being discharged from the ER. Although the swelling has gone down and she has not had headaches or nausea in the last 24 hours, the surgeon thinks it would be safer to have more time to observe Mom post-concussion. Apparently after concussions, bleeding in the brain is possible days/weeks later.

Mom's mastectomy will be rescheduled after she gets another pre-surgery medical clearance. We are thinking that it will get rescheduled in a week (or two). I will keep you all posted. Thanks!

Rock Wall Patching: The rock wall along the driveway will be patched up next week Saturday by a handyman. Cy and Gavin unloaded the bags of stucco mix by the office hallway that will be used for the job.

Roof Repair: We have received 3 bids from licensed roofing companies. The Bishop's Committee will review the proposals and decide on the company to use. We will be using money from our building fund to cover most of the cost but need to use additional funds from this year's budget too.

Shawl for Jan: A prayer shawl was gifted to us by the Prayer Shawl Ministry of Halau Wa'a Episcopal on the Westside to bless and give to Jan from our church. Wilma Namumnart (a Palolo neighbor and member of Epiphany Church) is part of that knitting group and brought the shawl to us. If anyone would like to get involved and do some knitting, see the informational flyer at the end.

Halau Wa'a Episcopal's Prayer Shawl Wa'a will accept DONATED YARN & SUPPLIES from folks who want to support the ministry but don't know how to or want to knit/crochet! Contact Fr. Mark 620-8866 or Jill 330-7087 to schedule day/time to pick-up or drop-off at Pop-Up Eucharist on Sundays at 10am.
