READINGS FOR TODAY:

The Collect

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Old Testament

2 Samuel 6:1-5, 12b-19

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim.

They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the LORD with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; and when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. David danced before the Lord with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

As the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

They brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being before the LORD. When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts, and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

The Gospel

Mark 6:14-29

King Herod heard of Jesus and his disciples, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him." But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised."

For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." She went out and said to her mother, "What should

I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer." Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Update on Jan Motoshige - Homecoming and Changes in Communication with Mom

Journal Entry by Joni Kohama — July 4, 2021

As of yesterday, July 3, it has been one year since Mom was diagnosed with cancer.

Fast forward 365 days – after 12 weeks of chemo, the onset of Guillain Barre Syndrome (GBS), 4 months in a nursing home, a fall that delayed her mastectomy, her mastectomy in March and another 3 months in a care home, we are happy to announce that Mom will finally be returning home this Friday, July 9th. A wheelchair ramp has been built (see pictures), her bedroom, bathroom and an “activities” room have been painted, cleaned, and made walker-friendly, and we are currently working on cleaning up the deck to make a space where she can sit in the sunshine and visit with friends.

Before you get excited and call her, please know that currently, Mom’s cell phone is not working. We will fix her phone (or get her a new one) after she returns home. Until then, the best way to contact Mom is via email. You can try to text her, but she is not as responsive via text. I’ll update you when we get this cell phone issue resolved.

After Mom gets settled in and her doctor appointments, acupuncture and physical therapy appointments are scheduled, I will update you when Mom is ready for visitors and provide directions on how to make arrangements to visit her. Most likely I will be Mom's point of contact to schedule visits or outings. I will keep you posted on details as we figure out the flow of communication and certain COVID-related measures.

Due to Mom's dementia, we ask that you do not schedule with Mom directly. I suspect Mom may have already made arrangements with some of you to visit her so if she has already made arrangements with you, please let me know so I can put it on the calendar.

Also, please be aware that what Mom says she can or wants to do is different from reality.

- In Mom's mind, she thinks she can sew on her sewing machine but, in reality, due to the neuropathy in her fingers and her lack of reflexes, it's not safe for her to use her sewing machine.

- In Mom's mind she plans to go walking at the mall but in reality, due to the GBS, her stamina is low and she may not be able to walk no more than a 100 feet.

- In Mom's mind she thinks she will be able to stay home alone, but in reality, she may need around the clock supervision.

- In Mom's mind, she can climb stairs, but, in reality, after the onset of the GBS she struggles to climb just 3 stairs.

I bring this to your attention just as a reminder to keep this in mind when planning outings or activities with Mom. Her dementia has gotten a little worse (probably due to some depression and less scheduled activity at the care home) so she is quite cognitively impaired at times.

Thank you all for your care and concern. I will be in touch soon!

Happy 4th of July!
Joni

Letter from Rev. Malcolm Hee:

Greetings faithful friends,

It is with joyfulness that I share the good news, that I have been named as the Vicar of Good Samaritan starting on Sunday, September 5, 2021. It has been a long journey for me to get to this point. First, starting with the seed planted by The Rev. Carol Arney in 2012 that I would make a good priest. Then meeting with the Bishop and getting his approval to move forward on this path. Three years of training on Biblical scripture, Church history, and theology was certainly intense. Internships at Epiphany under Fr. David Jackson and at St. Elizabeth's under Fr. David Gierlach gave me practical experience. When I was ordained on June 25, 2016 the Bishop assigned me to The Cathedral of St. Andrew where I have been ever since. Expressing the desire to be at Good Samaritan was always at the top of my list.

With thanks to our Lord Almighty, blessings from Bishop Bob, and acceptance by the Bishop's Committee at Good Samaritan, I look forward to serving our congregation in Palolo Valley. Living in the community helps to give me the understanding of the people and cultures that make up the majority of our members who are AAPI – Asian American and Pacific Islander. Being AAPI myself with a background of Hawaiian, Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Vietnamese, and Filipino, I am able to relate to many.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift: Send down upon our bishops, and other clergy, and upon the congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace: and, that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honor of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rev. Malcolm Keleawe Hee
