Twenty-fifth Sunday after Pentecost

REMINDERS FOR THE SERVICE:

- Singing is now allowed.
- Please wear your masks. Masks will be provided for you if you forget to bring one.
- Every other pew is being used to maintain social/physical distancing.
- There will still be no procession or recession by Celebrant.
- The Offering collection plate will not be passed around during the service. It is in the back of church. Please try to place your offering there before the service or at the end if you missed it.
- Communion will be bread only. It will be given closer to the pews. Single file down the aisle and exit to the left or right to walk back to your seat. All are welcome to go up for communion or a blessing. - No contact during the peace (just turn and acknowledge each other with a bow, wave, etc.)
- If you are feeling sick or feverish, please go home.

READINGS FOR TODAY:

The Collect

The following Collect is being used in commemorations of Queen Lili'uokalani:

E Ke Akua Mana Loa, ke ho'omaika'i nei mākou i Kou Inoa no Ka Mō'ī Wahine 'o Lili'uokalani, nāna i kupa'a mau iho, oiai 'o ia ma loko o ka pilikia nui, i ka maluhia, ke kala'ia'ana, a me ka hana mana 'ana iā 'Oe. E ho'āpono mai, ke pule nei mākou, i ko mākou mahalo no kona ho'omanawai, kona ha'awina ma ke mele, a me kona aloha i kāna po'e. Ke nonoi nei mākou i kēia mau mea ā pau ma ka inoa o Kāu Keiki, 'o Iesu Kristo. 'Āmene.

Almighty God, we praise your Name for Queen Lili'uokalani, who in the midst of great adversity remained steadfast in her commitment to peace, forgiveness and of service to you. Accept, we pray, our gratitude for her perseverance, her gift of song, and her love for her people. All this we ask in the name of your Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

Old Testament

Daniel 12:1-3

The Lord spoke to Daniel in a vision and said, "At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever."

The Psalm

- 1 Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; *
I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord,
my good above all other."
- 2 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, *
upon those who are noble among the people.
- 3 But those who run after other gods *
shall have their troubles multiplied.
- 4 Their libations of blood I will not offer, *
nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
- 5 O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; *
it is you who uphold my lot.
- 6 My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; *
my heart teaches me, night after night.
- 8 I have set the LORD always before me; *
because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
- 9 My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; *
my body also shall rest in hope.
- 10 For you will not abandon me to the grave, *
nor let your holy one see the Pit.
- 11 You will show me the path of life; *
in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

The Epistle

Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

The Gospel

Mark 13:1-8

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birthpangs.”

Queen Lili'uokalani

Today throughout our Diocese, we commemorate Queen Lili'uokalani's death, how timely that we sing the Queen's Prayer once again. Composed by Her Majesty on March 22, 1895, while she was under house arrest at Iolani Palace. This hymn was dedicated to Victoria Ka'iulani, heir apparent to the throne. In September 1895, eight months after the Queen's arrest and imprisonment at Iolani Palace, she was paroled and returned to her home, Washington Place, where she remained under house arrest. Bishop and Mrs. Willis of St. Andrew's Cathedral were among the first to call on Her Majesty to offer sympathy and support. They visited often. Later Bishop Willis invited her to become a member of the Anglican Church and on May 18, 1896, she was baptized and confirmed at St. Andrew's Cathedral where she remained an active member for the rest of her life.

Zippy's Fundraiser Update:

Sorry for the delay but the tickets will now be available next weekend instead of today as planned. Deb didn't realize there was another form to sign and checked her email too late. We are still requesting that each family sell at least 20 tickets at $9 each but if you are able to sell more then please do. The church will receive $4 for every ticket sold. Let Deb know how many tickets you would like to sell if it exceeds the 20. Each ticket will give you a choice of one of Zippy's chili, portuguese bean soup, meatsauce, breakfast plate with small drink, or 5 pieces of Napoleon's Bakery cornbread. Our tickets will expire at the end of January 2022 so they will make great gifts for friends and family too! Money for tickets sold and any unused tickets will be due at the end of November. Let's make this fundraiser a success!

Kid's rubber slippers break all the time so extra pairs are always handy. If you want to support this ongoing drive there will be a basket at the back of the church. Whenever you are at the store and come across an inexpensive pair, any size will do. We will deliver to needy schools. Thank you!

Funeral for Lillian Nakamoto:

For those that remember former church member, Lillian Nakamoto, her funeral services is scheduled for Tuesday, January 25, 2022, 5pm at Hosoi Mortuary.

Dial 808 To Make Local Calls

Just a reminder that since October 24, 2021, all local calls, including those on the same island, will require you to dial area code 808 + telephone number. The change comes as the Federal Communication Commission (FCC) adopts 988 as a new three-digit number to be used nationwide to reach the National Suicide Prevention and Mental Health Crisis Lifeline starting July 6, 2022. In order for it to work, all service providers must implement mandatory 10-digit local dialing. Be sure to update all your contacts with their area codes.
